

BAMSTRONG

“The Power of One”

by

Brian McClellan

PMI Atlanta Symposium

August 16, 2008

Are you the One?

Leadership is not a position, but a mindset.

Q: What is the one principle that guides the actions of all great leaders?

A: Great leaders are those who put someone else first. They do the most for the most.

A Leader Must Always Remember

Regardless of your position, you must remember:

The Cost to Be the Boss

The Answer to the Real Question

The One Message to “Get”

The Cost to Be the Boss

The essence of leadership is service. The first obligation of a leader is to inspire positive action.

The Human Action Model

A person will only take action if all the below are satisfied.

- ✓ He/she is dissatisfied with the current state
- ✓ He/she can envision a better future
- ✓ He/she believe as better future can become a reality

Answer to the Real Question

What is the real question a leader must answer in the minds of those who follow? “Do you love me?”

This “love” is demonstrated by putting those that follow in a position to be successful. How?

The Three Cs

Communication, Consequences and Conditions

What are the right conditions? The Three Ts

Time, Tools and Training

The One Message to “Get”

A Leader must “get” how to shine through adversity

How?

Building self-confidence that will never fail

The boss’ whisper is like a lion’s roar

Creative Destruction

BAMSTRONG

You are the One

Leadership is not a position, but a mindset.

Inspire Positive Action

Position Others for Success

Shine in Adverse Times

BAMSTRONG

BAMSTRONG

Contact Information

BAMSTRONG Presentations

Attn: Brian McClellan
2700 Braselton Highway, Suite 10-390
Dacula, GA 30019

www.bamstrong.com

bam@bamstrong.com

888-276-6730